THE IMPACT OF EMPLOYEE EMPOWERMENT ON CUSTOMER SATISFACTION
(WITH REFERENCE TO STATE BANKS IN COLOMBO DISTRICT)

This dissertation is submitted as a partial fulfillment of the degree of Bachelor of Business Management in Entrepreneurship and Management

Faculty of Management
UvaWellassa University

Registration number: UWU/ENM/09/0006

Year 2013
ABSTRACT

The Impact of Employee Empowerment on Customer Satisfaction in State banks

SriLanka.

(With special reference to State banks in Colombo district)

N.E.B Ayomi and JanakaSiyabalapitiya

Department of Management Sciences, Faculty of Management.

UvaWellassa University

UWU/ENM/09/0006

In today’s dynamic business environment, improving the firm performance has become a business asset and a competitive edge for various companies. In order to get that one of the major tools they use is Employee empowerment. This has become a common practice in banks as well. To improve customer satisfaction and create firm competitive advantage, firm Human Resources must focus on a new set of priorities. The objectives of the study were identifying the nature of Employee empowerment practices and customer satisfaction, gaining the deeper understanding of the impact of employee empowerment and the customer satisfaction and to determine the relative contribution of employee empowerment on customer satisfaction.