

2.

- a. Imagine that you have been appointed to design a drinking water purification plant for a private company. As a water scientist, explain how you are going to design this plant. (Answer should include all the necessary steps)

(25 marks)

- b. Discuss advantages and disadvantages of biological treatment and chemical treatment methods in water purification.

(15 marks)

